One hundred fifty-eighth entry:

February 16, 2022

Laissez le bon temps rouler! Yes... it is time to let the good times roll! We opened the chest and started accepting passage on Valentine's Day for our signature gathering in July of Summer Chi.ill. Scalliwags from all o'er be preparing to sail into the Port'O'Chicago and me mates be preparing the decks, scrubbing the barnacles, and mending the sails. But the hold can only accommodate so many, be sure to make weigh and be aboard this amazing cruise. Remember... thar be no Summer Chi.ill in 2023. Until then, let's start planning excursions for the coming of Spring. Until then, it be time for a hurricane, the delicious red concoction, and no amount can stifle the excitement of what is to come!

THE HURRICANE COCKTAIL

Be blown away by one of NOLA's most famous cocktail

PHIP President

The most popular drink with visitors to the French Quarter may just be the sweet red Hurricane, served with a big old cherry and a juicy orange slice. This local libation was created with rum at Pat O'Brien's bar during World War II when whiskey was hard to come by. The name for the drink came from the glass it's served in that resembles a hurricane lamp. A perfect place to sip a Hurricane is still in Pat O's legendary courtyard, overlooking the flaming fountain. You can find them around the city as well, and most bartenders will be happy to mix you one. Try the frozen varieties at drive-thru daiquiri stands in the French Market.

Traditional Hurricane Recipe

2 oz. light rum

2 oz. dark rum

2 oz. passion fruit juice

1 oz. orange juice

½ oz. fresh lime juice

1 tablespoon simple syrup

1 tablespoon grenadine

Garnish: orange slice and cherry

Shake all ingredients in a cocktail shaker with ice and strain into a hurricane glass filled with ice. Garnish with a cheery and an orange slice.

Pat O'Brien's Hurricane Recipe

4 oz. of Pat O'Brien's Rum or any good dark rum

4 oz. Pat O'Brien's Hurricane Mix*

Garnish: orange slice and cherry

Mix ingredients and pour into 26 oz. glass with crushed ice. Garnish with a slice of orange and a cherry.
